

Weddings & Civil Partnerships

All our wedding packages include a pre-wedding photo shoot and coverage including the bride arriving at the wedding venue, the ceremony and our acclaimed contemporary, reportage photography at the reception.

For couples who want more formal coverage we will include a number of traditional group photographs and pictures of special friends or relatives.

As a minimum we will supply up to 40 images in a quality, bespoke album.

£995

The Standard Package

Our most popular package includes everything that we offer as part of our basic coverage plus photography at the bride's home before the wedding. Coverage up to and including the 'first dance' is part of the package, as is photography of the speeches and a record of guests as they arrive at the reception.

As a minimum we will supply up to 40 images in a handsome "Artemis" album.

Premium Packages

We are proud to offer two exceptional premium packages. The first includes all the above plus images at the groom's home as he and his best man prepare. Images of celebrations into the evening, guaranteed coverage by Ian or Caroline Parkinson and a beautiful, hand crafted, book-bound album.

In addition we can provide high definition video clip's, edited and incorporated into an amazing slide show that you can view on DVD, iPOD or the web. The slide show combines our outstanding still photography, ambient audio recorded at your wedding and stunning short movie clips, all brought together in a single continuous film-like production.
